2 | Prompt

Compare and contrast a thematic element from each autobiography (family, gender, education, sexuality, violence, Christianity, etc.). What is the effect of this element, and the way the author approaches it, in each text?

3 | Quotes bin

3.1 | Douglass: Connection exists between rape (and the creation of offsprings) and economic value

This is done too obviously to administer to their own lusts, and make a gratification of their wicked desires profitable as well as pleasurable.

3.2 | Jacobs: Woman

Woman are considered of no value, unless they continually increase their owner's stock. They are put on a par with animals
