

1 | Pathogenicity and Virulence

Pathogenicity: An agent's relative capacity to cause disease

- Non-pathogenic agents => no disease
- Primary pathogens => yes disease
- Opportunistic pathogens => yes disease only when it can, for instance, in immunocompromised individuals

Virulence: numerical measures for pathogenicity

- Measured experimentally => LD50 + ED50