

- Part of the surrealist movement

Siriak

- context from text
  - Left from Makassar, a city in Indonesia
  - SS Max Havelaar, an influential book about Dutch Colonialism around the 19th century.
  - Name Suna Siriak is probably Indonesian.
  - Robinson Crusoe - short story about a white person stranded on an island, written early 17th century.

Homework: Underline repeating/key words. Wednesday on class: why is this surrealist? What is the connection to greater imperialism?

Assignment: Read and find repetition in The I Is Never Alone See Exr0n's notes SRC202008242051.pdf

---