

Goal: how did the global history influence and cause us to end up where we are today?

History as familiar? vs. History as foreign? vs. History as present?

Curiosities from history

- Gender worked differently
  - "Horsemannings" => an early form of memeary
-

1 | History as the reflection of the present

As these countries move forward in time, they could become interdependent

- Events in history could reflect examples for the present

2 | Big questions

- When did world history become "global history"?
- What forces connected the various regions in the world?
- Since when and in what parts did world history become the history of the West?
  - Where is the West, anyways?
  - How do you define the West? # The Class ## Calendar/Course Outline
- Unit 1: Empires
- Unit 2: Europe
- Unit 3: Imperialism
- [break]
- Unit 4: WWI
- Unit 5: WWII
- Lit Review Paper
- Unit 6: Cold War

3 | Expectations

These will probably be not very useful except for people taking HIST201 with Sushu. Nevertheless, this KBHIST201SushuCourseExpectation is Sushu's course expectations.