

1 | what makes a ionic solution colored?

- White light goes into the solution
- the solution absorbes some of the colors
- the solution appears to be the color of the unabsorbed light.

2 | Beer's Law:

- the higher the concentration of a solution, the more of a certain light is absorbed