

1. Do not actively seek out vulnerabilities in systems you do not own.
2. Disclose information in a responsible and well-documented manner.
3. Think about the consequences of releasing information.
4. Do not attempt to access sensitive information
5. Work with the organization to rectify vulnerability.
6. Do not seek out sensitive information.
7. Consult with teachers and others when faced with a moral dilemma.