- Instead of geting arctangents everywhere, try to insert rs such that you get $r \cos \theta$s and $r \sin \theta$s because they are easy to replace with x and y.

- if you can manipulate things such that constants are subtracted by numebers going to infinity, then you can ignore them.